Thank you for your kind letter of 9 March. I am very glad to know that you enjoyed your tour of duty in Washington. At the time of your departure I would like to say that your service here has been greatly appreciated by our Agency and has contributed materially to the close relations which have developed between the intelligence organizations of our two countries.

I am sure that all the friends which you leave behind will join me in wishing you every success in your future activities back home.

Sincerely,
